Fundraising

Auction Update:

- $11,665.94 in profit after expenses
- $10,000 was the expected profit
- A lot of great feedback

Worlds Finest Chocolate

- We are going eliminate it, the Auction profit helped

Book Fair

- 4/23/-25
- Confirmed with Teri
- Open 9-3
- Art & Science Fair is 25th
- Volunteer requests going out soon
- Anna S. is going to help support
- Teri and Anna will be volunteering as chair the last time
- Ideally would have a co-volunteer this year so they can learn the ropes at the even
- For next year we can re-evaluate vendors

Box tops

- $392 profit earned
- Kindergarden and 7th grade won the contests
- This puts our income at $1500 this year (budget was $500) – great job!

Board Report

- A lot of focus on residential changes in Morton Grove
- Community engagement process
 - o What do we want for the future of Hynes and the options available
- MAP / Student Achievement growth is being monitored (classroom size could impact this downstream)

- We hosted a play – Legend of Babel’s Dragon – 150 people attended

Unfinished Business

Drama Club Fees

- We will review the budget and do a formal vote at next PTA meeting

New Business

- Dyana will send communication to 2-4 grade parents about t-shirt design
- 4/3 will be a showcase of how the teachers will spend their grant money
- Space, time, need parent liaison

Communications

- Brooke got a thank you from Hynes for the PTA Auction

Open Discussion

- Language program next steps – Abby will try to meet with Ashlee, Nada, or Kim M. to discuss the program and will chair this program in 2019/20
- Assembly and/or learning opportunities for students and parents – the PTA wants to bring some of this back in the next school year in the form of assemblies, parent topics, etc. Things that are more enriching for the entire student body

- Consider a communication campaign for 2019/20 that highlights the value PTA is bringing
- Work on a PTA communication plan in Summer, 2019
- Suggestion made to continue to have PTA meetings in the summer to get a head start on initiatives for the new year.

Adjourn at 8:21PM
